

The Official Mercedes Lackey &

Larry Dixon Fan Club

Series 3, Vol. 23, No. 9

November 2021

Heyla, Misty fans!

Great news! Misty is SFWA's newest Grand Master! See below.

Into the West is available for preorder and will be out June 21, 2022.

Due to scheduling on our end, we're going to have to go back to Wednesday nights for the QORP starting in January. We may be taking a field trip to Elderwood Manor . . . Hope to see you there!

Development is underway for the Vanyel TV series. I think it's going to be live action. I'll let you know any further details as they cross my screen.

Almost done scanning the books and anthologies (only the stories written by Misty and Larry) for the foods and recipes for the Queen's Own Cookbook. Not sure I can read my own notes, but this is doing wonders for my Goodreads goal for the year. My, Misty writes a lot! Still trying to figure out how to organize it. Like a regular cookbook. By country. By class. By setting. 'Tis a puzzlement. I think I'm going to plug everything in and see if a solution presents itself. Let me know on the QO chat list on Facebook if you have a preference.

Zhai'helleva,

Herald-Mage Adept Danya Winterborn

November Prompt:

Let's build a new sewer system like the one in the capital, they said. It'll be great, no more bad smells stinking up the market, they said. No one ever bothered to think about the poor sot who would have to repair and clean it.

[If any other fanzine editors would like to send us story prompts, we'd be happy to publish them!]

Note from our very own Gryphon King:

Friends,

This is everything I really wanted for Misty. Misty doesn't really win awards because she and I write series & no one book stands out. But 50 years of work—that adds up. This recognition is a dream made real. Thank you @sfwa & all involved.

From Herald-Mage Adept Danya Winterborn:

Well, my mother fell and broke her hip, so I was no longer able to take care of her. She's recovering slowly (She's almost 95, so it's a bit of a challenge.). She's now living in Arizona near my sister. I doubt I'll get to see her again except by Zoom, so it's been rough.

I landed a job writing a script for a YouTube video about King Arthur. Haven't done screenwriting since the 1990s, but I imagine it's like getting back on a bicycle. Should be fun.

Development for the Dragonlords TV series is proceeding apace. The screenwriter and I have a great working relationship. Thanks to Atchity Productions for backing the project.

The book I coauthored with John Matthews, Lucius Artorius Castus: The Roman King Arthur, should be out in March 2022. It truly is amazing how much work goes into getting a book to press even after it's been sold. I don't know how Misty fits everything into her schedule.

This is our last newsletter until January, but the Queen's Own Chat List on Facebook is active and ready for questions. If you have an approved persona and want to do a little unofficial RPing, I'm up for that as well. See you in January!

Zhai'helleva,

Danya
